

Indiana's law for privacy has been an excellent benefit in our home. We formerly received at least 5 calls per evening and some in the daytime. Now we only recieve one a day at the most and there are whole days where our phone doesn't ring (our daughter recently moved also). Please don't fix what isn't broken for us in Indiana